B. FEATURES OF LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

The Learning Resource Center comprises of many sub-sections for various kinds of uses of the students for the books such as reading section, reference section, home lending section and ICT. The features of the Learning Resource Center have been mentioned keeping in view all the various sub-sections of the Learning Resource Center.

C. OPERATIONAL FEATURES:

The Learning Resource Center functions from 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. (Lunch break 1.00 p.m. to 2.00 p. m.). The reading hall is open from 8 .30 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. during most of the academic session. Learning Resource Center timing on Saturdays will be 8.30 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. During the Examination Period the Learning Resource Center remains open even on Sundays from 10.00 a.m. to 6.00 p. m. and on SLS Holidays 10.00 a.m. to 6.00 p. m. The Learning Resource Center is, however, kept open even on holidays during examination period for the convenience of Readers. Learning Resource Center hours are subject to change and all changes, if any, are notified on the Virtual Notice from time to time.

D. RIGHT OF ENTRY :

The right of entry to the Symbiosis Law School Learning Resource Center is reserved to the SLS students, faculty and other staff members of the institute. Students are required to keep their Identity Cards with them for inspection whenever they visit the Learning Resource Center. Learning Resource Center staff is authorized to request them to produce the same at any time. A serious view is taken of unauthorized entrants. Outsiders and ex-students of the college are required to seek the Librarian's written permission to use the Learning Resource Center.

E. MEMBERSHIP:

Students, faculty and other members of the staff of the Institute are entitled to become members of the Learning Resource Center.

- While entering the Learning Resource Center Entry Register is to be signed and the Identity Card is to be shown.
- Reader's tickets are not transferable. A member is responsible for the books borrowed on his/her reader's ticket. Neither books nor reader's tickets should be lent to another person. Sub lending of books is a misuse of membership privileges and may lead to withdrawal of membership.

- While going out of the Learning Resource Center, members should ensure that the books they are taking out are properly issued. If a member is found removing any reading material without getting the same properly issued, suitable action will be taken.
- Members should keep the Learning Resource Center informed of any change of address, class or subject of study etc. during the period of their membership.
- Books should not be kept beyond the date marked on the due date-slip.
- Learning Resource Center books are for the use and benefit of not only the present but also the future members of the Learning Resource Center.

Therefore, all Learning Resource Center books should be handled with due care. Members should not write on or disfigure the books in any way.

- Members should satisfy themselves about the physical condition of the book they wish to borrow before getting them issued; otherwise, they will be held responsible for any damage or mutilation noticed at the time or returning.
- Loss of Learning Resource Center tickets should be reported immediately. Despite every precaution, the Learning Resource Center will not be responsible if the lost tickets are misused. Therefore, it is in their own interest that students should always be particular in showing the Institute identity cards as and when asked by the Learning Resource Center staff at the issue counter.
